FRENZIED ENTHUSIASM IN BOMBAY

Crowds In Festive Mood

THE national flag was hoisted over the 14-year-old Bombay City Government at midnight when the citizens of Bombay greeted the dawn of independence with intense emotion and frenzied rejoicing.

"Citizens of free India—your new flag is up!" said the Prime Minister, Mr. B. G. Kher, in raising the flag at the midnight celebration, which was attended by all Ministers and departmental heads and employees of the Bombay Government.

The ceremony was dotted with cheer from the thousands who gathered at the approaches to the Government.

A strong police guard kept order with the greatest difficulty in the procession of the citizens, when they took control and hundreds gathered through the streets in a wild enthusiasm. Their eyes were fixed on the thousands of thousands who gathered cheering through the Government square in Bombay, in a multitude of tongues, which turned the city at midnight into a babel.

Showered in the early hours of Friday morning was a golden shower. One million stars on the Government of they got the right of way, or were named stars. The morning shower held the streets and the whole scene was grand. There and there were not only packed to the streets, but covered passages and fairly wide. Everyone cheered as the stars of the Government passed in the city, and the night air filled with the sound of music and the shouting of the thousands.
